

2019 STACK HOUSE Cabernet Sauvignon Sonoma County

91 POINTS – JEB DUNNUCK

Always a smoking value, the 2019 Cabernet Sauvignon comes from Sonoma and has a layered, ripe, forward, and undeniably delicious style as well as lots of darker berry fruits, notes of leather and ripe herbs, ripe tannins, and a great finish. It's going to put a smile on your face any time over the coming decade. Bravo! 2/16/23

90 POINTS – THE WINE INDEPENDENT

The 2019 Stack House Sonoma County Cabernet Sauvignon is deep garnet-purple in color. Classic cabernet notes of cassis, pencil lead, and cedar jump from the glass, with underlying hints of tilled soil and cardamom. The medium to full-bodied palate is wonderfully light on its feet, with an approachable grainy texture and a lifted finish. 4/13/23

The 2019 Stack House Sonoma County Cabernet Sauvignon boasts from the glass with an abundance of dark ripe fruits. Beautiful aromas of black currants, blackberries and black cherries intermingle with layers of roasted herbs, crushed rock, graphite, mocha, toasty French oak and baking spice. The wine is plush and velvety on the palate. The mouthfeel is rich and textured while showcasing a brilliant vein of freshness and acidity. The wine culminates with a gorgeous long enduring finish.
